

Update 05-13-16

Construction for the Otsego West Wastewater Treatment Facility Digester Expansion project was limited heavily by weather this week due to several days with rain moving through the area. It is expected that the wall form work for the next concrete pour will be completed next week (pending weather) with a concrete pour to follow shortly after.

For progress photos, please visit: <https://www.flickr.com/photos/141031621@N04/>